NEW CARDINALS

Pope Pius Named Fourteen Eminent Catholics to Wear the Red Hat

Rome, May 25.—At a secret consistory held at the Vatican this morning Pope Pius created thirteen new cardinals. At the same time official announcement was made of the creation of Monsignor Bello, patriarch of Lisbon, as cardinal. His name had been reserved "in pectore" at the consistory in 1911. Cardinal Diomedes Falconio, formerly apostolic delegate in the United States, also was raised to the rank of cardinal. The Pope appointed Cardinal Francis Della Volpe to the office of chamberlain, in which position he will direct the affairs of the church during the conclave. Several bishops from various countries also confirmed in their sees.

The ceremony, which was accompanied by the brilliance usual on such occasions at the Vatican, was preceded by a short allocution, after which the names of the new cardinals were announced as follows: Monsignors Louis Nazaire Begin, archbishop of Quebec, Canada; V. Guisasaola Y. Mendez, archbishop of Toledo, Spain; Domenico Serafini, assessor of the congregation of the Holy Office; Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, Italy; John Csernok, archbishop of Esztergom, Hungary; Francis Von Bettinger, archbishop of Munich, Bavaria; Felix Von Hartman, archbishop of Cologne, Germany; P. G. Piff, archbishop of Vienna, Austria; Philipp Guislini, secretary of the congregation of the Sacraments; Michael Lega, dean of the tribunal of the Rota; Scipio Techi, assessor of the Consistorial congregation; the Rt. Rev. Francis Aidan Gasquet, president of the English Benedictines, and Hector Irujo Sevin, archbishop of Lyons, France. The Pontiff was surrounded by all the members of the Sacred college living in Rome and by those who are now here, including Cardinals Gibbons, Farley and O'Connell.
